Summary of

Qualifications

Began my professional career in IT in 2008 after completing training at the "Infotrans"

Scientific and Production Center in Samara, where I received an engineer certificate. From that time to the present day, my work has been in the administration of the network working software complex and the administration of the data base.

Since 2010, as a hobby, I has taken a great interest in the creation of websites and their administration. Launched own educational project Timsecrets.net.

After completing training in IT Academy in 2015, I received basic knowledge and programming skills. I am the owner of the sitezavod.com project where I offer my services for the creation and administration of web sites.
