Additional information

- 1) I realized how much customer support means to a business. It determines the continuity of a business. It makes me happy when customers are satisfied with a company regardless of how they are when I meet them.
- 2) Great time management skills acquired over time through academic and professional work.
- 3) Ability to function in a team and lead a team. I head a group of young people and I manage a choir from 2016 till now.
- 4) I do music and I have met several kinds of people on this path. I have learnt to be able to take up new skills and be easily teachable.
- 5) Meeting people is a great experience for me every time because every one is unique. Being in this field has helped me to realize how amazing people can be and I've learnt to deal with people who might be difficult and I am still learning.
