Описание вакансии

Вимоги, побажання: we are looking for an independent critical thinker, who is able to manage multi-disciplinary tasks. We are a startup focusing on the mobile medicine market, but from you, we do not require any specific medical knowledge. You need to be familiar with and have some background in Java, databases and their structures, Web, Algorithms and AI, which would be an extra plus to your application.

Обов'язки: creating online service, doing your assessments on time, and online meetings with the team in order to create new ideas.You will need to work a lot of time on your own and to manage all deadlines, that Bear Band is facing.

Feel free to ask more details about tasks online .

Умови: All finance and support will be taken by us - all international conferences that Bear Band will attend will be paid for you by us
