Описание вакансии

Job Description: We are seeking a skilled developer with expertise in Flutter, React, React Native, or Ruby on Rails to join our dynamic team. This flexible role offers the freedom to choose your hours and work remotely, with payment on an hourly basis.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and maintain applications using either Flutter, React, React Native, or Ruby on Rails
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to define, design, and ship new features
- Ensure the performance, quality, and responsiveness of applications
- Identify and correct bottlenecks and fix bugs

Requirements:

- Proficiency in one or more of the following: Flutter, React, React Native, Ruby on Rails
- Strong understanding of the software development lifecycle
- Excellent problem-solving skills and ability to work independently

This role is ideal for those who value flexibility and autonomy in their work while being part of a supportive and innovative team.
