Опис вакансії

Natife is looking for Developer to join our team and start your career in IT sphere.

Would be really great if you have a technical background or previous experience working with mobile application development, but it's not a MUST thing for us.

If you know basic OOP principles, basic Swift knowledge and you understand REST API design principles — we will be glad to have a chat with you and tell you more about us.

Your key responsibilities would be:

- Participation in native mobile application development with mentoring of our developers
- Gain a new experience from your work

What we are willing to offer:

- Full-time work in friendly, young and full of energy team;
- A flexible schedule;
- A comfortable and cozy office in the centre of the city;
- Room where you can play video games, play table tennis and relax in bag chair;
- Unlimited quantity of tasty cookies/coffee/tea;
- Excellent opportunities for professional growth and personal development.
