Опис вакансії

Полная удалённая занятость на постоянной основе в канадском бренде БАДов (Verdica / Kasha), который продаёт через Amazon. Зарплата: от 600 до 1000 USD в месяц — старт зависит от опыта и скорости обучения. Amazon-опыт не требуется: всему научим. Нужен рабочий английский (вся работа идёт на английском), поэтому полное описание ниже на английском. Отклик: careers.kanut@proton.me (тема письма AMZ-OPS-JR) или форма https://tally.so/r/2jBDxM.

Remote Junior Amazon Ops Associate — Seller Central, FBA & AI (Full-Time)

Compensation: US$600–1,000 per month. Placement in the band depends on your background, skill, and how quickly you ramp. High performers can move up as they grow. Paid trial: 2–4 weeks at US$150/week.

This is a full-time, ongoing remote job — not freelance, not a short project.

Schedule: ~40 hours/week remote, with 3–4 hours of weekday overlap with Eastern Time (Canada).

About the team

Verdica (Kasha) is a growing health/supplement brand sold primarily on Amazon Canada. Small team, fast pace; Amazon sits at the center of the business. You work directly with the founder.

Who fits

Drive matters most. We want someone eager to learn, resilient under friction, and self-directed. We will train Seller Central; we cannot train grit.

You will thrive if you:

- Figure things out on your own instead of waiting for a walkthrough

- Keep pushing when Seller Support rejects a case the first few times

- Use AI tools daily and enjoy testing new ones

- Sweat the details — one bad shipment number costs money

- Give brief, honest updates and ask early when stuck

- Want this as a long-term main role with room to grow

Skip this if you need part-time, a short gig, or a second job beside another full-time role.

Day-to-day work

- Ramp on Seller Central, then monitor it daily: orders, account health, alerts, and Seller Support cases

- Support inventory/FBA: stock tracker updates, building shipments, labels, chasing inbound issues

- Refresh listings (titles, bullets, keywords, images, flat files) and catch suppressions quickly

- Assist PPC: negatives, pulling reports, flagging spend with no sales

- Chase suppliers and the warehouse on dates, labels, and freight

- Use AI to draft cases, review listings, clean data, and move faster

- Send a short weekly note: what you shipped, the numbers, and what you will try next

Must-haves

- 1–2 years in a high-pressure role at a known company (retail, e-commerce, CPG, bank, telco, BPO, or similar), OR a degree from a strong university (students OK if you can do full-time hours)

- Daily AI tool use (ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, etc.) — be ready to show how

- Comfortable in Google Sheets or Excel

- Solid written English (working English required)

- Stable computer, internet, and power backup

Amazon Seller Central experience is welcome, not mandatory — we teach it. What we need is fast learning and hard work.

Bonus (optional): prior SC/FBA/PPC; other marketplaces (Shopify, Shopee, Lazada, Daraz); inventory/logistics; Helium 10 or Jungle Scout; business/supply-chain/IT/engineering degree.

Growth

- Long-term seat on a growing brand, close to the founder

- Path toward Amazon Operations Manager as you take more ownership

- Pay rises with impact; regular raise reviews

Apply

Email careers.kanut@proton.me with subject starting "AMZ-OPS-JR" (missing code = not reviewed), or apply via https://tally.so/r/2jBDxM. Include:

1. CV with university and every job (company, role, dates). Note any Amazon or e-commerce work

2. On-camera video ≤3 minutes: intro, why this role, something hard you taught yourself, and how you use AI (Loom, mp4, or Drive link set to Anyone with the link)

3. Optional: a tracker, checklist, or report you built (blur client data)

Process

1. Application screen

2. 30-min video call — screen share your work, learning style, and AI use

3. Paid 2–4 week trial with weekly goals

4. Full-time offer
